

Spirit of Sutterby Autumn Programme 2018

October

Old Words: Wolds Words

Exploring the lost villagers from the Wolds through the words they left behind.

This is a taught introductory session in how to read old documents.

No previous knowledge required.

Tuesday, October 2nd Franklin Hall, Spilsby 7pm-9pm

Numbers limited - booking required

£5 to include refreshments

Understanding Wolds Mediaeval Landscapes and Farming.

A practical Workshop with

Dr Mark Gardiner of University of Lincoln and Dave Start

Saturday, 6th October 2018 10.00am - 4.00pm

Langton Village Hall

Cost £10 to include a themed Mediaeval Landscape cake

featuring (by request) serfs and oxen

Please bring your own packed lunch

Fully booked

Sandwich Filler:1

Sutterby's Secret Army

Reminiscences from the last war

With John Hudson

Tuesday, 9th October

Franklin Hall, Spilsby 1pm - 2pm

£3 .Hot drinks provided. Please bring your lunch.

Harvest Supper

Our first fund raising event.

Friday, October 12th.

Partney Village Hall, 7pm

Kate Witney will be leading the Community Singing, delving into the Sutterby song Book and more to keep us entertained.

Raffle Prize kindly crafted and donated by Master Potter, Andrew MacDonald.

£10. Tickets in advance.

Lincolnshire Landscape: through the eyes of Alfred Lord Tennyson & John Clare.

A lecture by Professor Mark Seaward, University of Bradford, examining the connection between poet and landscape.

Saturday October 20th 2.30pm

Franklin Hall, Spilsby

£5 to include abstract themed interpretation of poets and their landscape by the Firsby

Artisan Bakery

November

Sandwich Filler:2

Prehistoric Question Time

with Prehistoric Question Master: Dave Start
Who built Stonehenge? Did dinosaurs have fleas? Did camels come from the Arctic?

Tuesday, November 13th

Franklin Hall, Spilsby 1pm - 2pm

£3 .Hot drinks provided. Please bring your lunch.

Thomas Grantham : hero with feet of clay.

Thomas Grantham, one of the founders of the Baptist movement, was a local man, who wrote his last will and testament at Sutterby.

Bob Kershaw, for whom Grantham holds a particular fascination, explores the enigma of this nationally important, influential but little understood man.

Saturday, November 17th 2.30pm

Franklin Hall, Spilsby

£5 to include themed confection from the Firsby Artisan Bakery

Quo Vadis?

Tonight you can find out!

We look back at the past year of excitement and discoveries and look forward with a brave heart to the future challenges which await us.

Saturday, November 24th

Franklin Hall, Spilsby

7pm

Themed seasonal refreshments.

December

Celebrating Advent in words and carols

Sunday, December, 9th 10.30am

St John the Baptist Sutterby

Our annual seasonal gathering to be followed by mulled something in the Shoot Lodge, plus a selection of Christmas fancies from the Firsby Artisan Bakery

Sandwich Filler:3

Away in a manger

The Christmas Story : fact or fiction

with Father Peter Coates

Franklin Hall, Spilsby

£3. Tuesday, December 11th 1pm - 2pm

Hot drinks provided. Please bring your lunch.

We end the year with a few words from Our Bard

'One door opening onto five

Each opening themselves to yet five more

Knowledge and friendship

Skills we did not know.

All avenues from which Sutterby grow'