

Spirit of Sutterby

Zoom Winter Programme 2021: January Update.

Wednesday, January 27th 7pm

Mediaeval Stone Crosses: what we know and what we don't know.

A marvellous Start to our lecture programme and a chance to update our knowledge base hopefully ready for summer excursions....

Sandwich Filler

Tuesday, February, 9th 1pm

Early Colour Photography on our Doorstep: The Dalby Autochromes.

Ray Emery explores a recently discovered photographic treasure trove and whirls us back to the Dalby of yester year.

(Our thanks to Beth Dawson for her kind permission to share her family photos)

Wednesday, February 17th 7pm

Domesday: an introduction and local review.

Erik Grigg, Bishop Grossteste University, joins us through the ether to update and expand our knowledge of this seminal document.

Sandwich Filler

Tuesday, March 9th 1pm

Toynton: a story of pots and kilns.

Dave Start unearths and shares the fascinating story of Toynton pottery. Heritage and history literally under our feet

Thursday, March 18th 7pm

Mediaeval Sculpture: motifs, messages and morals.

Dr James Wright introduces us to the wonderful world of mediaeval stonemasons and looks at how they worked with their patrons to create meaningful imagery upon buildings.

Sandwich Filler

Tuesday, April 13th 1pm

Who do you think they are ? Sutterby style...

David Stonehouse and Mick Holmes climb up two Sutterby family trees with unexpected results!

Thursday, April 22nd 7pm

Manor Courts: an introduction

Bethany Elliott, University of Lincoln, introduces us to the wonderful world of manors: their courts, records and processes

Tuesday, 18th May 7pm

Using place names to understand the past: history, landscape and monsters.

The welcome return of Dr Caitlin Green - this talk, postponed from last year, will discuss the importance of place names for understanding landscape history and development.